

Jean H. Chey

PHILADELPHIA, PA

Jean H. Chey is a partner in the firm's Philadelphia office. She focuses her practice on representing the interests of employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators in workers' compensation matters.

Since 1993, Ms. Chey has practiced exclusively in the area of Pennsylvania workers' compensation law. Immediately following law school, she spent the first six years of her practice representing employees. She then became staff counsel at a national insurance company where she represented employers for eight years. Ms. Chey joined Cipriani & Werner in 2008 and continues to represent employers, insurance companies and third-party administrators in all aspects of workers' compensation litigation matters.

Ms. Chey is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

She received her B.A., with honors, in Chemistry from Bryn Mawr College in 1987 and her M.S. in Chemistry from the University of Pennsylvania in 1990. Ms. Chey continued her education at the Beasley School of Law at Temple University and received her J.D. in 1993.

She resides in Bryn Mawr with her family.
