

Suzanne R. Fisher

PHILADELPHIA, PA

Suzanne R. Fisher is a partner in the firm's Philadelphia office. With 30 years of experience defending general insurance liability claims, she focuses her practice on product liability, premises liability, insurance coverage and bad faith litigation, motor vehicle, defense of municipalities, and hotel and resort matters.

Ms. Fisher's practice also encompasses commercial litigation matters including state licensing, state subsidy entitlement, matters arising from adoption practices, and an appellate practice. She works with various underwriting departments in drafting automobile insurance policies in conformance with Pennsylvania law. She also has experience serving as an arbitrator and Judge Pro Tem.

Ms. Fisher is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Ms. Fisher graduated from Pennsylvania State University in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in General Arts and Sciences. She received her law degree from Villanova University School of Law in 1993.

Ms. Fisher resides with her family in Wynnewood, Pennsylvania.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Appellate
- General & Premises Liability
- Product Liability
- Insurance Coverage, Fraud & Bad Faith
- Motor Vehicle
- Municipal Law & Governance

EDUCATION

Pennsylvania State University (B.A., 1989)

Villanova University School of Law (J.D., 1993)

✉ sfisher@c-wlaw.com

📞 (610) 567-0700