

Sarah M. Gordon

PHILADELPHIA, PA

Sarah M. Gordon is an associate in the firm's Philadelphia office. She concentrates her practice in general liability matters, including premises and motor vehicle claims, and she also helps clients with employment matters.

As a result of litigating 100s of jury and bench trials for the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, Ms. Gordon has deep experience advocating for her clients. Her ability to think quick on her feet and to see what's coming next, skills honed in the courtroom, make her a fierce advocate.

Ms. Gordon can see litigation issues early on, is creative with her approach, and is always prepared. She is communicative through each step of the trial process. She is thorough, and always puts the work in to attain the best outcomes possible for her clients.

Ms. Gordon is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

She graduated from Hampshire College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Middle Eastern Studies and Cognitive Neuroscience, and she earned her law degree from Boston College Law School, where she served as a managing editor of the Environmental Affairs Law Review.

She lives in Ardmore, Pa, and when not practicing law, she enjoys exploring new places and reading speculative fiction.
